Nominated representative form

This section should be completed if you wish to nominate a third party to transact on your warrant on your behalf, e.g., your financial adviser.

If you complete this form and return it to us, you authorise us to act on the instructions of your nominated representative in relation to your warrant and you authorise us to provide information about your warrant and your investments to your nominated representative.

If we cannot contact you in relation to your Portfolio Warrant we may contact your nominated representative for instructions. You are responsible for and bound by the instructions that the nominated representative gives us and you indemnify us in relation to the actions of your nominated representative. This nomination remains effective until you revoke it by providing written notice to us.

For self-managed superannuation fund's you confirm that the appointment has been approved by the trustees of the fund and is allowable under the superannuation fund's trust deed and has been appropriately minuted.
